| Punishable with imprisonment under section 66 | Five to ten per cent of the estimated cost of the plot, apartment or building, as the case may be, of the real estate project, for which the sale or purchase has been facilitated |
| Punishable with imprisonment under section 68 | Five to ten per cent of the estimated cost of the plot, apartment or building, as the case may be |

1. Short Title, Object, Commencement and Extent:

In exercise of the powers conferred on it under Section 85 of the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 and other powers enabling it in that behalf, the Haryana Real Estate Regulatory Authority, Gurugram hereby makes the following regulations:

- (i) These regulations may be called the Haryana Real Estate Regulatory Authority, Gurugram (Adjudication of Execution Petition) Regulations, 2020.
- (ii) These regulations are meant to establish the procedure for filing and adjudication of execution petition(Section 51 and Order 21 Rule 10 of Code of Civil Procedure) relating to enforcement of orders passed by the Adjudicating Officer or the Regulatory Authority, as the case may be, under section 40 of the Act of 2016.
- (iii) These regulations will come into force from the date of their publication in the official gazette.
- (iv) The Haryana Real Estate Regulatory Authority, Gurugram(Adjudication of Execution Petition) Regulations, 2020 shall apply to all matters falling within the jurisdiction of Real Estate Regulatory Authority, Gurugram as notified by the Government of Haryana vide Notification 1/92/2017-ITCP dated 14.12.2017 which comprises the entire area of Gurugram District.

2. Definitions

Unless the context otherwise requires in these regulations: -

- (i) “Act” means the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 as amended from time to time.
- (ii) “Rules” means the Haryana Real Estate Regulatory Authority (Regulation and Development) Rules, 2017 as amended from time to time.
- (iii) “Regulations” means the Haryana Real Estate Regulatory Authority, Gurugram (Adjudication of Execution Petition) Regulations, 2020 as amended from time to time.
- (iv) “Authority” means the Haryana Real Estate Regulatory Authority, Gurugram.
- (v) “Adjudicating Officer” means the adjudicating officer appointed under sub-section(1) of Section 71
- (vi) ‘Court’ means a civil, criminal or revenue court and includes any tribunal or any other authority constituted under any law for the time being in force to exercise judicial or quasi-judicial functions.
- (vii) Words and expressions used herein and not defined but defined in the Act shall have the same meaning respectively assigned to them in the Act.

3. Filing of Execution Petitions

A perusal of Section 40(1) of the Act of 2016 shows that for enforcing liability upon the promoter/allottee or a real estate agent with regard to payment of any interest or penalty or compensation imposed on him by the adjudicating officer or the authority or the appellate tribunal, as the case may be, it is provided that the same shall be recoverable from that person as an arrears of land revenue. So, Section 40 of the Act of 2016 has to be read with this regulation in order to recover the amount due from the promoter or an allottee or a real estate agent, as the case may be, by filing an execution petition under section 51 read with Order 21 Rule 10 Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 in the prescribed proforma(Annexure 1) as given in Order 21 Rule 11 of CPC. Since the amount due against a promoter or allottee or a real estate agent is to be recovered as arrears of land revenue by following the provisions of the Punjab Land Revenue Act, 1887, so a recovery certificate to the Collector of the concerned district as per the provisions of the Revenue Recovery Act, 1890(Annexure-II) is to be issued by the Adjudicating Officer or the authority, as the case may be.

Now, the second situation is with regard to enforcement of orders or directions passed by an adjudicating officer or the regulatory authority as provided under section 40(2) of the Act of 2016 read with rule 27 of the Haryana Real Estate(Regulation and Development) Rules, 2017. It is provided under rule 27(1) of the said rules that the orders or directions passed by the adjudicating officer or the authority shall be enforced in the same manner as it were a decree or a order made by a civil court in a suit pending therein. It shall also be lawful for the adjudicating officer or the authority as the case may be that in the event of its inability to execute the order, send such an order to the principal civil court within whose jurisdiction the real estate project is located or to the principal civil court of original jurisdiction within the local limits of whose jurisdiction the person against whom the order is being issued resides or carries on business or personally works for gain alongwith a certificate stating that an order has not been executed by it.

However, for enforcement of the orders and directions passed by the adjudicating officer or the authority, as the case may be, a specific procedure as per provisions of Code of Civil Procedure is to be prescribed and the same is as under:

- 3.1 After an order or direction has been passed by the adjudicating officer or the authority in a case pending before it and the same is to be enforced, then the petitioner by filing a petition either personally before the authority/adjudicating officer himself or do so through an authorized representative who may be a chartered accountant or company secretary or cost accountant or a legal practitioner or any of its officers (Section 56 of the Act of 2016). The name, mobile number and email of the person or agency through whom the petitioner wishes to be represented shall also be deemed to be the registered mobile number and registered email of the petitioner. A notice on such mobile number or email shall be deemed to be a proper service of notice to the petitioner. The authority/adjudicating officer will send all communications to the petitioner as well as to his representative, but a notice/communication to any one of them will also be deemed to be a proper notice/communication to the petitioner. (Order 21 Rule 10 CPC)
- 3.2 The execution petition shall be filed before the authority/adjudicating officer on plain paper in duplicate (along with the soft copy of petition in word format) plus copies in accordance with number of respondents in the format prescribed(Appendix A to E) given below
 - (a) Index (Appendix III)
 - (b) Brief facts (Appendix IV)
 - (c) Proforma for execution as prescribed by the Authority(Appendix 1).
 - (d) List of assets (movable or immovable) of the respondent/ JD/company as well as its directors, if any (Appendix V).
 - (e) Calculation sheet of claim, if any, (Appendix VI)
 - (f) Affidavit in assertion of claim as well as documents (Appendix)(VII)
 - (g) Any other supporting documents (if any)
 - (h) Relief sought (reproduce the content of the order that has to be executed) (VIII)
 - (i) A demand draft in favour of "Haryana Real Estate Regulatory Authority, Gurugram" amounting to Rs. 500/-.
 - (j) Certified copy of the final order/decreed
- (ii) The petition for execution should be in serial number.

All the execution petitions should be filed as per the format given in the appendices. The petitions must be accompanied by prescribed fee and in accordance with given format after suitably modifying the same according to the facts of the case.

- 3.3 All the petitions shall be examined by the office of the authority to ensure that they are legible and in the prescribed format and all appendices cited in the petition are annexed. A report shall be made by the office as to whether the decree/order to be executed is or not under challenge before the higher authority and there is any stay to execute that order/decreed and the statutory period to file appeal has expired or not. It shall also be reported as to whether any claim or its part has been satisfied either during the pendency of the case or before the filing of the petition. The petitions which are not in the prescribed format shall be returned for correction and re-submission in the prescribed format and if the same are not accompanied by prescribed fees shall be returned.

- 3.4 The Secretary/Registrar shall cause all the petitions received in the prescribed format to be placed before the authority/adjudicating officer in the next meeting.
- 3.5 The petitions shall be filed personally or through an authorised person in the office of the Registry of the authority. In case, a petition is found to be in the prescribed format, the same shall be placed before the authority/adjudicating officer for consideration. However, if it is not in the prescribed format, a communication shall be given regarding the deficiencies and the petitioner will be asked to rectify deficiencies within 15 days. Only a complete petition shall be deemed to be a petition received by the authority/adjudicating officer for execution. In case the deficiencies as pointed out to the petitioner in the petition are not rectified within the given time frame, the same shall be rejected. However, the petitioner shall have the liberty to file a fresh petition in the prescribed format. (Order 21 Rule 17 of Code of Civil Procedure)
- 3.6 The Secretary/Registrar shall prepare a register of the petitions received which are complete in all respects for placing before the authority/adjudicating officer on weekly basis. An information relating to incomplete petitions will also be prepared in the similar manner and brought to the notice of the authority/adjudicating officer every week.
- 3.7 The members of the authority/adjudicating officer shall be given copies of each of the petition at least two days before the sitting of the authority by the Secretary/Registrar. An intimation of the date of hearing will also be sent to the petitioner (under Order 21 Rule 17 of CPC) The petitioner may represent himself personally or through an authorized representative before the authority on the date of hearing.
- 3.8 The authority/adjudicating officer shall consider the petition and upon finding a prima-facie case, may issue a notice to the respondent, if filed beyond two years from the date of passing of order (Order 21 Rule 22 of Code of Civil Procedure). The notice to the respondent shall ordinarily be of 21 days for filing response, if any. However, if the decree is for payment of money, execution by detention in prison shall not be ordered unless after giving the judgment debtor an opportunity of show cause under Order 21 Rule 37 CPC (Annexure IX) as to why he should not be committed to prison provided the authority for reasons recorded in writing is satisfied by affidavit or otherwise :
 - (a) that the judgement debtor with the object or effect of obstructing or delaying the execution of the decree,—
 - (i) is likely to abscond or leave the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Authority, or
 - (ii) has, after the institution of the claim in which the decree was passed, dishonestly transferred, concealed, or removed any part of his property, or committed any other act of bad faith in relation to his property, or
 - (b) that the judgement-debtor has, or has had since the date of the decree, the means to pay the amount of the decree or some substantial part thereof and refuses or neglects or has refused or neglected to pay the same (Proviso to Section 51 CPC)
- 3.9 The notice to the respondent/judgment debtor shall be sent through registered post/courier/e-mail with a copy of the petition by the concerned officer of the authority. An intimation will also be sent through email and phone number of the respondent conveyed by the petitioner or the phone number or the email of the respondent available with the authority in its database (Order 21 Rule 22 of CPC)
- 3.10 An intimation of the notice issued to the respondent as well as of the date of hearing shall also be given to the petitioner on his mobile number or email furnished to the authority.
- 3.11 The respondent/judgment debtor shall submit two copies of his reply. The respondent shall also send a copy of his reply to the petitioner. The Secretary/Registrar shall place the petition along with the reply received from the respondent before the authority/adjudicating officer. A full set of petition and the reply received from the respondent shall be provided to each of the member on the bench at least one day before the date of hearing (Order 21 Rule 23 CPC)
- 3.12 In his reply, the respondent should specifically answer the assertions made by the petitioner and supported by documents or specifically deny the same. In case, the same are denied, the reasons and proof thereof must be given and documents, if any, in support of the assertions should be annexed.

- 3.13 The reply of the respondent/JD shall be broadly in the same format as prescribed for filing the petition. It shall be comprised of the following parts:
- (i) Index
 - (ii) Reply to the facts alleged by the petitioner. Any additional fact in the knowledge of the respondent/judgment debtor may be cited along-with evidence.
 - (iii) Reply to the calculation sheet submitted by the petitioner
 - (i) Any other submission of the respondent.
 - (ii) Reply to the relief sought by the petitioner.
 - (iii) An affidavit in support of assertions as well as documents filed with the reply
- 3.14 Ordinarily, no adjournment to either of the party will be given. Adjournment can be granted when adequate justification is furnished otherwise, the adjournment shall be granted with cost which may be decided by the authority/adjudicating officer depending upon facts and circumstances of the case.
- 3.15 Every petition, every application, reply, affidavit, annexures to petition or the reply etc. shall be in the English language and shall be typed in double spacing on one side of a superior quality legal size paper having 70 GSM only with font Thorndale, font size 14 in double space with margin 1.25" on top, 0.75" on bottom, 1.75" on left side and 0.75" on the right side. It shall be headed "In The Haryana Real Estate Regulatory Authority, Gurugram, Haryana". No memorandum of petition or application etc. or copy thereof shall be entertained unless it is legible. However, annexures to petition may be filed as photocopies which are legible, properly spaced with proper font size etc. mentioned therein above and self-attested as to be a true copy.
4. In cases of any order or direction to a person to pay certain amount passed by the adjudicating officer or the regulatory authority, as the case may be, and that person refuses to pay that amount, then his movable property in execution of that order or decree as prescribed under Order 21 Rule 30 CPC (Proforma Appendix X) is liable to be attached by the authority.
 5. In cases of any order or direction to a person to put into possession the petitioner of a particular flat/building or commercial unit and refuses to obey the same, the authority/adjudicating officer may issued a warrant to give possession as per the provisions of Order 21 Rule 35 CPC (Appendix XI)
 6. In cases of any order or direction for execution of decree by way of arrest and detention, the authority/adjudicating officer may issue warrant of arrest as per provisions of Order 21 Rule 38 CPC(Appendix XII) and send that person to jail by preparing a warrant of committal as per provisions of Order 21 Rule 40 CPC(Appendix XIII)
 7. In cases of an order or direction has been complied with by the judgment debtor and is lodged in the jail, he/she can be released by the authority by issuance of an order as per Section 58 and 59 CPC(Appendix XIV)
 8. In cases of an order or direction to the judgment debtor prohibiting him from transferring and creating any charge over some property, the adjudicating officer/authority can pass an order as per the provisions of Order 21 Rule 54 CPC(Annexure XV)
 9. In cases of an order or direction to the judgement debtor to be complied with or for payment of certain amount to the decree holder, the authority/adjudicating officer can pass an order under Order 21 Rule 41(2) CPC by giving a direction to file an affidavit of his assets (Appendix XVI)
 10. In cases where the decree is for payment of money, the authority/adjudicating officer can issue warrant of sale of the property under attachment to recover the amount due as per the provisions of Order 21 Rule 66 CPC(Appendix XVII 1 to 4)
 11. In cases where the attached property has been put to auction and sold, then the person in possession of that property can be prohibited from delivering that property to anyone except the auction -purchaser as per provisions of Order 21 Rule 79 CPC(Appendix XVIII)

12. In cases where the order or direction issued by the authority/adjudicating officer are not complied with for whatever reasons may be, then a certificate of non-satisfaction of decree alongwith a certificate of execution of decree transferred to an another court as per the provisions of Order 21 Rule 6 CPC and a precept as per the provisions of Section 46 CPC (Appendix XIX) can be issued.
13. Orders passed by the authority/ adjudicating officer upon hearing will ordinarily be recorded and communicated to both the parties.
14. The Authority reserves the right to make new and any amendment in the regulations as and when required.

(Title of the petition)

Petition No. of 20....., decided by the of in which was son of was the petitioner andson ofwas respondent.—Notice is hereby given that, under rule 64 of Order XXI of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908, an order has been passed by this Authority for the sale of the attached property mentioned in the annexed schedule, in satisfaction of the claim of the decree-holder in the petition (1) mentioned in the margin, amounting with costs and interest up to date of sale to the sum of.

The sale will be by public auction, and the property will be put up for sale in the lots specified in the schedule. The sale will be of the property of the judgment-debtor above-named as mentioned in the schedule below; and the liabilities and claims attaching to the said property, so far as they have been ascertained, are those specified in the schedule against each lot.

In the absence of any order of postponement, the sale will be held by at the monthly sale commencing at o'clock on the at In the event, however, of the debt above specified and of the costs of the sale being tendered or paid before the knocking down of any lot, the sale will be stopped.

At the sale, the public is generally invited to bid, either personally or by duly authorized agent. No bid by, or on behalf of, the judgment-creditors above-mentioned, however, will be accepted, nor will any sale to them be valid without the express permission of the Authority previously given. The following are the further Conditions of sale

1. The particulars specified in the schedule below have been stated to the best of the information of the Authority, but the Authority will not be answerable for any error, mis-statement or omission in this proclamation.
2. The amount by which the biddings are to be increased shall be determined by the officer conducting the sale. In the event of any dispute arising as to the amount bid, or as to the bidder, the lot shall at once be again put up to auction.
3. The highest bidder shall be declared to be the purchaser of any lot, provided always that he is legally qualified to bid, and provided that it shall be in the discretion of the Authority or officer holding the sale to decline acceptance of the highest bid when the price offered appears so clearly inadequate as to make it advisable to do so.
4. For reasons recorded, it shall be in the discretion of the officer conducting the sale to adjourn it subject always to the provisions of rule 69 of Order XXI.
5. In the case of movable property, the price of each lot shall be paid at the time of sale or as soon after as the officer holding the sale directs, and in default of payment the property shall forthwith be again put up and re-sold.
6. In the case of immovable property, the person declared to be the purchaser shall pay immediately after such declaration a deposit of 25 per cent. On the amount of his purchase-money to the officer conducting the sale, and in default of such deposit the property and forthwith be put up again and re-sold.
7. The full amount of the purchase-money shall be paid by the purchaser before the Authority closes on the fifteenth day after the sale of the property, exclusive of such day, or if the fifteenth day be a Sunday or other holiday, then on the first office day after the fifteenth day.
8. In default of payment of the balance of purchase-money within the period allowed, the property shall be resold after the issue of a fresh notification of sale. The deposit, after defraying the expenses of the sale, may, if the Authority thinks fit, be forfeited to Government and the defaulting purchaser shall forfeit all claim to the property or to any part of the sum for which it may be subsequently sold.
